

Invitation

When is it?

- Four forums a year: 20 October 2009, 15 January 2010, 15 April 2010, 19 July 2010.
- The choice of early or late afternoon sessions: 2:30pm - 4pm or 4:30pm - 6:00pm.
- 134 Edmund Street, Birmingham, B3 2ES.
- £100 plus VAT per forum, or £300 if you book in advance plus VAT for all four.

Who will be there?

At least one of the following:

- David Hall, Senior Associate who advises on technology and information law issues and leads our work in these fields.
- Jane Plant, Associate who regularly advises landlords on practical data protection issues.
- Matt Wort, Associate who advises social landlords on employment issues.

What will the Session cover?

- Brief update from us on the latest news and cases on data protection, freedom of information, environmental information, surveillance law, privacy and confidentiality.
- Open forum for delegates to share questions, issues and solutions. There and then our lawyers will give detailed solutions, refreshers on the law or signposts.

Why should I attend?

- Social housing providers will be scrutinised even more closely by the new TSA, driven by concerns within central Government and privacy campaigners about poor compliance.
- Get ahead: the sector is still coming to terms with the Freedom of Information Act and the Environmental Information Regulations.
- Share compliance management tips, and war stories with other providers, as well as senior lawyers who work for the sector.
- High quality, sector-focused, up-to-the-minute, highly re-usable strategic advice at a fraction of the price for one-to-one advice.
- A regular opportunity to look at compliance issues, that you can build into your routine.

How to book

If you would like to book a place on this forum, please visit our website and fill in the form at:

<http://www.anthonycollins.com/news-and-events/events.aspx>

You can also secure your place by emailing Sue Addis at sue.addis@anthonycollins.com